KIT46150, PS46150 — Collections Mill Book Circa 1835 72"X 72"

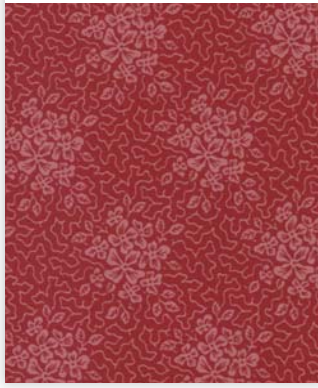

As an avid collector of antique quilts and textiles, Howard Marcus has used his passion to give back to various charities through donating proceeds of the sales of his Collections for a Cause quilting fabrics. The latest addition to this program is Collections for a Cause: The Mill Book Series, Circa 1835. This group compiles reproduction prints from a French mill book dating back to 1835. This book, one of many in his library, features hundreds of antique swatches documenting prints of the time. Authentic in color and in scale, this beautiful new collection showcases the fine, delicate print quality of the period. Proceeds from The Mill Book Series will directly benefit the quilting community. Proceeds from this collection will fund an endowment to the American Quilt Study

Group for educational programs, more scholarship opportunities, and to enhance the abilities of the AQSG to have a more prominent impact in the quilt world.
